INTRODUCTORY.

In presenting this, the first volume of the Terre Haute City Directory der the present management the publisher feels justified in claiming tha not only the handsomest but the most complete book ever issued in ou or elsewhere, as it will be found to contain items of useful information published heretofore, and which are very essential in a City Directo a glance through its pages will prove. There has been a fair increase in lation as well as a good growth in the business world, as several ente have located among us, and during the past year the Southern Indiana road has come into our midst, opening up a splendid territory which fail to benefit our merchants, but also tend to increase the general pros of our city. The Interurban Line to Brazil is another gain of the pas and will do its share in obtaining new patronage for our business men.

The number of names contained herein are slightly over 24,000, which tiplied by two would make our population 48,000, deducting the su which contain about 3,000, gives us a net population of 45,000 for the proper, which is a gain over previous years. As we give wives' nam use as low a figure as two for the multiple, which we consider is very c vative.

Special attention is called to the Index to the street number guide, eliminates all difficulty heretofore experienced. Notice is also directed abridged form for finding a name which will be found at the top of eac of the Directory proper, and will prove of great assistance.

The Publisher desires to thank the public not only for the liberal p age, but also for the confidence displayed in his efforts, which has resul the handsome edition now presented.

It is the aim and purpose of the publisher to make this an annual pu tion, as our city has grown to the necessity of a new Directory at least year, and such changes as are deemed necessary to keep pace with the ti times will be made, and every improved method for bettering and simpl the work will be used.

The map contained in this issue is from the hands of our well-know izen and civil engineer, George R. Grimes, and is up-to-date in respect.

Trusting that the Publisher's efforts will come up to the e patrons, I remain,

Very truly,

November 15, 1900.

We have a large field all to ourselves

If you want to reach the Germans of Terre Haute and vicinity, you must use the "Daily" or "Weekly" Journal.

The Daily Journal,

Newsy, reliable and ably edited, is the most widely circulated German newspaper in Indiana, and is of inestimable value to advertisers.

The Weekly Journal

Circulates all over Indiana and Eastern Illinois, and consequently offers splendid opportunities to shrewd advertisers.

Farmers, especially the Germans, are thrifty and have confidence in a publication that brings them back to the old Fatherland.

... Our Motto is ...

"We aim to satisfy Readers and Advertisers and we do it."

An Introduction

To the people of Terre Haute can be secured by placing your advertising in the

SUNDAY EXPRESS

The newspaper recognized by advertisers as having a clientele of intelligent readers.

Each succeeding month shows a marked improvement in the newspaper itself.

Appealing as it does to the most prosperous classes of men and women—the most desirable customers for any good thing—those who have money to spend—it more than satisfies advertisers, who demonstrate their appreciation of its results by renewed contracts.
